Organizer and Chair:

Sandy Dall'erba, Univ. Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, USA

Panelists:

Elizabeth Mack, Michigan State University.

Daoqin Tong, Arizona State University.

Jaewon Lim, University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Description:

This workshop aims at helping PhD students and postdoctoral students become more familiar with the job search and interview process in the US academia. The workshop is led by four professors from different disciplines so it can be useful to a large audience. It will cover the list of websites and listservs that offer information about job vacancies, provide information about what to do before and during the on-campus interview and allow the audience to ask questions.
